According to A.R.S. § 41-327

A notary public who has a change of surname due to marriage may continue to use the official seal and commission in the notary public's prior name until that commission expires. While using a married name in notarizations, the notary shall sign the married name on the line that is designated for the notary public's signature on the notarial certificate. The notary public shall sign the name under which the notary was commissioned immediately below the married name's signature. The notary public shall notify the Secretary of State's Office within 30 days of the notary's change of surname due to marriage.

Except as prescribed by the paragraph above, a notary public whose name changes for any reason shall apply for a new notary commission under the new name.
